

LEWIS & PROSAFE

Handguards Mounting Instructions

Exploded View

For optimum protection it is recommended that the support be mounted horizontally to minus 10° from the ground.

Due to the fact that most MTB handlebar on the market are designed to float backward, the Support needs to be mounted close to the grips in order to achieve the best protection and the lowest wind resistance for the hands.

